(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Several Chinese have been arrested.

League Of Nations Opium Commission May Urge Boycott

(Reuter's Service)

London, Jan. 19.—Sir John Jordan, interviewed on his return from attending the meeting of the League of Nations Opium Commission at Geneva, said that the chief subject discussed was the advisability of a boycott of opium produced by Persia and Turkey if they still refused to conform to The Hague Opium Convention.

Great diversity of opinion was expressed, he said. Some thought that such action would only result in an increase of production in India and extensive smuggling from Turkey and Persia. A representative of India suggested that opium should be sold at a fixed price to prevent the great rise which would make opium smuggling profitable. The matter was finally postponed but Turkey subsequently intimated her intention of entering the League, which would involve signing the Convention, while Persia also intimated her intention to withdraw the reservations she had hitherto made.

Sir John Jordan expressed the opinion that when Turkey, Persia and India came in together it should be possible materially to reduce the world production of opium. There was really no evidence of a reduction since The Hague Convention, although there had been local improvements.

After referring to the very bad marked recrudescence of opium production in China, Sir John Jordan expressed disappointment that, although the British, American and Chinese delegates strongly pressed for the holding of at least one public meeting of the Commission, the proposal was rejected.

MILK SWINDLERS HEAVILY FINED: ONE IMPRISONED

$100 Fine And Month In Jail For Offending Dairyman

Milk swindlers fared ill at the Mixed Court yesterday, when two fines of $100 were imposed and the defendant in one of the cases was given the additional punishment of a month's imprisonment.

The combination fine and jail sentence was given one Zung Ah-yung, convicted of selling milk from an unlicensed dairy to Settlement patrons who were deceived by bottles bearing the seal of a genuinely licensed dairy located inside the Settlement. The man was arrested after his delivery coolie had been convicted last week and fined $25. The defendant, it was shown, previously owned a licensed dairy in Chaoufoong Road but the establishment was closed by order of the Health Commissioner last August. He stated yesterday that he had been given the seals which he used on the bottles and the permit of the China Trust Dairy, with which he equipped his delivery coolie, from a friend. He offered to sell his cows and do no more business. The Court fined him $100 for selling milk in the Settlement without a license and sent him to jail for a month for forging the bottle seals.

A similar attempt at deception was seen in the second case. The accused, Zung Zung-tsang, was arrested on Kiangwan Road by Sanitary Inspector Burton. He had no license for distributing milk in the Settlement and an analysis of one of the eleven bottles of milk in his possession showed that 25.9 percent of water had been added to the original fluid. The bottles bore a seal carrying the letters "E. C. H." and the Health officer pointed out that the condition of these paper seals indicated that the bottles never had been properly washed. Investigation of the dairy, in the country off Kiangwan Road, Inspector Burton said, revealed four cows tethered in a room of a dwelling house. The room was less than one-third the size it should have been for four animals and was used in addition as sleeping quarters. The water supply was obtained from a shallow well. The accused said he had been running the dairy for four months.

The Assessor ordered the interpreter to tell the defendant that it was bad enough for him to sell milk in the Settlement without a license, without adding 25 percent of water to it and that he would be fined $100.

Assessor Mead and Magistrate Tsang heard both cases.

FAR EASTERN BAR ASS'N IS HOST TO DYER AT LUNCHEON

Dr. Masujima, Japanese Jurist, Also Guest

WARM WELCOME

Mr. Fessenden Greets Visitors At Shanghai Club

The Far Eastern Bar Association gave a tiffin in honor of Congressman L. C. Dyer, who is a member of the bar of St. Louis, and second ranking member of the Judiciary Committee of the House, at the Shanghai Club yesterday. Dr. Rokuichiro Masujima, former president of the International Bar Association, and one of the leading attorneys of Japan, was also a guest of honor.

Mr. Stirling Fessenden, president of the Association, welcomed the two distinguished guests in an address in which he expressed the pleasure of the Association in having the opportunity of entertaining them.

Congressman Dyer, in reply, expressed his delight at finding such a flourishing section of the American bar in China and said that he shared with them their pride in the high standing of the United States Court for China. He felt sure, he said, that the Court here was in every way the equal of a Federal tribunal in the United States and pledged his hearty assistance as a member of the Judiciary committee to keep the Court on the same high plane.

Dr. Masujima, who has been active in securing the co-operation of attorneys of all nationalities, spoke briefly on the subject of such co-operation.

HONORARY MEMBERS

After Dr. Matsujima spoke Judge C. S. Franklin offered a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, conferring honorary membership in the Far Eastern Bar Association on Chief Justice William Howard Taft of the United States Supreme Court; Judge Charles S. Lobingier; Mon. Cordenio A. Severance, former president of the American Bar Association, and once a guest of the Association in Shanghai; Hon. John W. Davis, former Solicitor General and Ambassador to Great Britain, and now president of the American Bar Association; Congressman Dyer and Dr. Masujima.

Judge Lobingier, at the request of Mr. Fessenden, then spoke briefly, assuring the members of their good fortune in having so able and disinterested a champion as Congressman Dyer and pledging him the loyal support of the members.

Dr. Matsujima, who is at the Astor House pending the sailing of the Kashima Maru on Monday, informed the local attorneys that the meeting of the Association scheduled to be held in Manila early next month had been postponed to a later date. Dr. Masujima said that it was possible the meeting would be held in July, which at the present time appeared to be the most feasible date, but that no definite time had been set, or would be, until he conferred with members of the Association in Japan.

Dr. Masujima lectured at the Comparative Law School at the request of Mr. Leonard W. Hartigan last evening, asserting that the Chinese should not copy from the Japanese judicial system but wait until such time as they, with their splendid background, could evolve a better system.

"I am a citizen of the world on the search for truth, not a Japanese alone," Dr. Masujima declared, "and Law is the search for Truth."

The Japanese attorney also advised the Chinese students to make a clear distinction between law and politics as the two should in no way be mixed or confused.

COURT EMBEZZLER CONFESSED CRIME IN HIS LETTER

Admits Converting Public Funds To Own Use; Third Arrest Is Made

A confession was made by Mei Yi-kuo, chief of the District Court of Shanghai who absconded after embezzling government funds amounting to over $40,000, in a letter addressed to Judge Chu Hsien-wen of the Soochow Supreme Court, it was learned yesterday. The text is now avaiable and a translation of it is as follows:

"Unable to resist the temptation, I have committed a grave crime by converting a large amount of public funds to my own use. I have formulated many plans to save the situation, but I could not devise any satisfactory means whereby I could be saved from ruin and was compelled to leave Shanghai.

"Henceforth, I will be a criminal in the eyes of the public, the eyes of my own family and in society. Disloyal, unfilial, unscrupulous and unfaithful as I am, I realise that I am condemned for ever for my crime. But throughout my life, I have ventured to be honest and straight. Who knows that one misdeed committed in an instant of adventure will ruin me for forever.

"The cause of it all was the confidence that the government had in me in allowing me to have possession of all the funds of the court. I was custodian of all bank passbooks, seals of the court and other properties. I could draw all the money I wanted for public as well as for private use without any restriction being placed upon me by any other person. This arrangement has caused my destruction. I have no way of redeeming myself.

"Of course, I alone am to blame for carrying out such a suicidal act. The agony is great when I realise that I have to be separated from my parents, wife and children and that by my act, an atmosphere of suspicion is created round the entire judicial system of the country.

"I wished to punish myself, but I could not think of any method. So I have resorted to the last refuge by leaving my office. At present, there is no one to function in my stead. It is important that some one should be appointed to the position at once.

"As to how my action can be amended, I shall leave to you for your consideration."

Another arrest has been made in connection with the case. Chow Lin, a clerk of the court, has been detained as an accomplice of the case. Chow is a brother-in-law of the accused.

UNITED STATES MAY BE ASKED TO MEDIATE IN THE RUHR OCCUPATION

Occupation Force Marks Time Awaiting Further Orders From Paris Because Of Germans' Passive Resistance To French Demands

MARSHAL FOCH WANTS MORE TROOPS

French Continue To Divert Coal Shipments To France Without Belligerent Opposition—Arrest Prominent Industrialists Who Remain Stubborn

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Essen, Jan. 19.—Suggestions that the United States accept the role as mediator between Germany and France in the present reparations disagreement that has caused the occupation of the Ruhr by French forces are being made in industrial and mining circles here. Prominent German industrial magnates are said to be taking the position that the United States, as the one nation which is absolutely disinterested in European affairs, will be able to effect a compromise.

The French forces are virtually marking time today awaiting further orders from Paris before making any further moves and the Germans are stubbornly awaiting the application of further penalties because of their recalcitrant attitude.

The French industrial heads have decided to requisition all the coal already mined and brought to the surface, and are diverting all cars, already loaded and destined for the interior of Germany, into France.

The Economic Mission has received advices from Paris that the "confiscation" of the mines is "creating a bad impression abroad, especially in the United States and England." They have also been informed that the French technical services now in the Ruhr district are inadequate to handle the task in hand without co-operation from the Germans.

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Berlin, Jan. 19.—Marshal Foch has demanded more troops owing to the unexpected resistance given by the Germans, according to advices received here tonight.

If Foch is successful in his demand the present advance would be turned from an economic invasion into a military conquest. Poincare, however, is said to be opposed to Foch's request.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Jan. 19.—Reports from Essen state that the diversion of coal and coke consignments to France continued yesterday without incident.

The Allied Technical Mission has despatched a formal requisition to the managers of the State mines, who have to commence carrying out the orders today; otherwise they will be subjected to coercive measures.

No date has been set for M. Joffe's departure from Shanghai. Neither was his secretary able to announce yesterday his next place of visit. M. Joffe is expected to return to Peking early in March when he is to resume his negotiations with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs on the question of the recognition of his government.

All restaurants will be closed at

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Jan. 18.—On the pretext that the French troops have at certain points reached the limit of the neutral zone, it is the endeavor of Germany to present their movements as military operations on a large scale. The French Government has recalled to the German Charge d'Affaires in Paris, that the measures taken have no other aim than that of securing the delivery of coal, the attitude of the German industrialists have made impossible the friendly understanding suggested by the French authorities.

The situation is quiet in the Ruhr. Measures have been taken to secure the despatch of barges and wagons to their destinations.

Forty thousand tons of coke and coal were seized today on barges and several trains full of coke were also seized.

The seizure of forest resources will be applied on the frontier of the sector occupied by the British troops.

CANTONESE HERE CELEBRATE SUN'S VICTORY IN SOUTH

Several Hundred Hold Motor Parade To Home Of Constitutional Hero

Several hundred Cantonese merchants and laborers held a demonstration yesterday in celebration of the fall of Chen Chiung-ming in Canton. Over 40 motor cars decorated with national colors and banners bearing legends of victory drew up in front of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's home on Rue Molière in the afternoon and their occupants waited on the Constitutional hero.

Greetings were exchanged and the enthusiastic callers ended their festivities with two banquets held at the Wei Yuan and Au Shang Restaurants on North Szechuen Road.

(China Press Service)

Canton, Jan. 18.—The commanders of the allied Kwangsi and Yunnan troops held a joint meeting yesterday when it was resolved to dispatch a telegram to Dr. Sun Yat-sen, urging him to return to Canton to attend to the "rehabilitation" of the situation.

The question of the appointment of a commander-in-chief was also discussed. The majority of the officers favored Gen. Hsu Chung-chi, Commander-in-chief of the Constitutionalist troops in Fukien, who is returning to Kwangtung at the head of his army.

It was proposed that pending Gen. Hsu's arrival, Gen. Li Lieh-chun be elected Commander-in-chief of the allied troops pro tem. Gen. Wei Pang-ping will be Commander-in-chief of the garrison of the provincial capital.

A Commission for the maintenance of order with Gen. Wei Pang-ping and Gen. Li Lieh-chun as its chairmen is being organised. Gen. Li proposes to transfer the Yunnan troops, large numbers of which are stationed in Canton, to the region of the North River.

(China Press Service)

Canton, Jan. 18.—In spite of alarmist views, it appears that the Constitutionalist leaders have the situation well under control. The entry of the allied troops into this city has not been followed by any confusion as was generally apprehended. Discipline is rigidly enforced among the troops.

The shops at Saikwan (western section of the city), which put up their shutters owing to the outrages of Chen Chiung-ming's troops on the eve of the latter's retreat to Waichow, have resumed business.

Paper notes, which depreciated to ten percent of their face value during the last days of the Chen Chiung-ming regime, are now worth thirty percent on the market. The rise is due to the assurance of the Constitutionalist leaders that the authorities will do their utmost to maintain the paper currency already in circulation.

(China Press Service)

Canton, Jan. 18.—Chung Sing, Chairman of the Provincial Assembly, who has disappeared since the capture of Canton by the Constitutionalist troops, is reported to have fled to Waichow with Chen Chiung-ming.

Mr. Lin Cheng-hsuan, former Chairman of the Provincial Assembly under the Constitutionalist regime, will be reinstated in office.

(Eastern News Agency)

Canton, Jan. 18.—The People's troops are entering the city in large numbers, and since General Li Ping-yung, Commander of the Peace Preservation Corps, has no real power to maintain public peace the tranquility of the city can hardly be preserved. There are indications that the city will be thrown into confusion at any moment.

Threatened by this gloomy aspect, the public is hoping that General Wei Pang-ping, with his real power and reputation, will exert himself to prevent further chaos.

It is understood that the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce will meet today with the object of devising measures for the maintenance of peace and order. At any rate, the disposal of the disorderly People's troops and the control of the Constitutionalist forces are important questions in Canton.

RAIN IN HONAN

Independent News Service

Hankow, Jan. 14.—The weather-cock has just said goodbye to the disgusted over-long dry weather, and the first rain for several months is falling today. Most Chinese here claim that the strength of religious piety of Chinese votaries of Buddhism in these cities has at last propitiated God, while many others believe that the ban on butchery, the pig-killing trade, has allayed the wrath of the God of Heaven.

Bertnikoff, one of the Russian refugees left here by Admiral Stark's fleet, was sentenced to a week's imprisonment by the Mixed Court yesterday for being drunk and creating a disturbance on Haining Road Thursday afternoon. He was also charged with damaging a bed at West Hongkew Police Station. The Court ordered that Bertnikoff be handed over to the Chinese authorities at the expiration of his sentence, since he has no means of support.

CLERK SENTENCED

Two years' imprisonment was the sentence served at the Mixed Court yesterday on Zien Tung-kyi, bank clerk convicted of embezzling money and shares to the amount of $86,000 from the National Commercial Bank, 14 Peking Road. Mr. S. Moss, for the defendant, asked a suspended sentence in view of the fact that his client had a number of dependent relatives. Mr. Ting, for the prosecution, urged a severe penalty. Assessor Blackburn, in rendering sentence, remarked that the penalty inflicted was light in view of the amount involved, but said that an application for a reduction of sentence would be considered if all, or the greater part, of the loss is made good.

ASIA LIFE INSURANCE CO. EVERLASTING AS THE HIMALAYAS INCORPORATED

THRIFT with a Two-fold Purpose

THE dictionary defines thrift as "economical management." Certainly as applied to you and your family the highest form of thrift is that which, for the lowest investment, makes the largest provision for their future welfare in case of your non-survival.

SUCCESS goes hand in hand with the ability to save, but the savings plan that fails to reckon with the uncertainty of life, may find those who are dependent upon it with little or no income soon after your help is gone.

ADEQUATE life insurance is the safest, surest way of saving money, and it is much more. It means protection for those who are dearest to you—a sure income for them as long as they live. It is a compulsory savings plan that, once begun, you are unlikely to abandon. It is the highest form of thrift—the economical management of your family's welfare.

Own Your Home Day

Some of the most sacred sentiments of life center around the concept of "home". But did anyone ever really regard the place where they live as "home" unless it belonged to them?

To own your home is an ideal, the realization of which will make you more comfortable and more contented. These days the number of houses owned by their occupants is steadily growing less but regular savings and a wise investment plan can secure for you, if you really wish it, a home of your own.

W.H.C. SUPER-DURABLE FLAT PAINT
FLAT WALL FINISH

A perfect Paint of smooth surface for Interior Wall Coating

The surface obtainable with this paint is smooth and flat, i.e., it is not a grainy, dead, lifeless finish, but of a velvety texture. It dries in a reasonably quick time, so that work can be carried out effectively, yet has the property of remaining open long enough to enable the worker to cover a large surface of wall without making laps or edges.

Excellent results with Super Durable Flat Finish are easily obtained, irrespective of the skill of the user, and an elaborate preparation of the surface is usually quite unnecessary.

Super Durable Flat Finish has been tried on non-absorbent surfaces of all kinds and where distemper and oil paint have proved prone to shell or flake off, it has always adhered. It gives a lasting finish of surprising beauty.

Interesting Point Raised In Mixed Court Murder Case

Whether a man, charges against whom have been withdrawn by the prosecution, and he having repudiated a statement considered in the light of King's evidence, may be placed back in the dock for trial on the strength of his later assertions, was a point raised yesterday in the Mixed Court when three men went to trial for the murder of Dzung Tsoo-sung, whose skull was crushed in on Tsepoo Road early in December.

The Court held that the man might be placed on trial, and so the number of defendants was increased to four, including the step-father of the victim

The case is being heard by Assessor Mead and Magistrate Li and the accused are Tseu Dzung-fung and Wong Ah-foo, barbers; Dzung Nen-bing, ship's compradore, and step-father of the murdered man, and Dzung Tsung-foh, the latter's servant, who was transformed from witness to defendant by yesterday's proceedings. Originally Dzung Tsung-foh was named among the defendants, but at the previous hearing Police Prosecutor Maitland withdrew the charge against him and asked that he be held as a witness instead. Mr. H. D. Rodger appeared yesterday for the first two accused and Messrs. Newman and Harris for the compradore.

In outlining the case, Mr. Maitland said that the step-father was the instigator of the crime, instructing his servant—the present fourth accused—to engage a gang of loafers, including the first two accused to beat up his step-son following disagreements about money.

Called to the witness box, Dzung Tsung-foh told of a row between step-father and son on December 7, when the latter wanted to borrow $600. The next day his master asked him to help stop this sort of thing and suggested that he engage a crowd of loafers to "frighten" the youth.

His story was cautious and Mr. Maitland finally arose and said that he was evidently a hostile witness. He asked leave to put in the witness' signed statement, given to the police, which was at variance with his present account. The Court remarked that the witness might deny the statement if he wished and counsel for the defendants all objected to its admission. After Detective Sergeant McDonald had given evidence as to the taking of the statement, Dzung declared that he could not remember making any statement. He said he was a "business man"—he had previously testified to being a coolie—and had "got confused." He denied arranging for the gang to attack the victim and denied knowing two men named Miau and Lieu, declared to have been ringleaders in the assault. The statement introduced was false, he said. He had told all sorts of stories, "because he was a business man, and got frightened." He could not remember whether or not the signature shown him was his own.

At this juncture Mr. Maitland arose and asked permission to have the witness placed in the dock to stand trial for the murder with the others.

"Yes," said the Assessor, "you can put him in the dock, and the evidence taken today may go at evidence."

Mr. Harris was immediately upon his feet with an objection.

"I have never heard such an application from any counsel before," he said. "The witness has already been discharged on a charge of murder and now he is ordered back. If all who gave King's evidence and did not say exactly what the police wanted them to say were put back it would be a wicked weapon in the hands of the police."

"I do not see that," replied the Assessor. "The man never stood his trial."

"If that is all the Court has to say, then I am finished and have nothing further to say in the matter," said Mr. Harris.

"Supposing there was new evidence brought forth," suggested the Assessor. "What then?"

"It would not make the least difference," declared Mr. Harris. "You cannot put the man on trial again."

"So far as we know of the matter," stated the Court, "there was not sufficient evidence for the police to take the case against the man, and they withdrew it."

Mr. Harris replied that the police had the statement, to which the assessor replied that this was not put in and all he knew was that the case was asked to be withdrawn because of insufficient evidence.

"I say that now he has given certain evidence, if it was against my client it would be useless," said Mr. Harris. "If he is to be put back in the dock he would have to have a separate trial."

Counsel further maintained that no co-defendant could be put in the box and give evidence against a co-defendant.

"In my short stay in this court," replied the Assessor, "I have seen many do it. We consider that he has not told the truth, that he can read and did make the statement, and he is put back in the dock to stand trial as an accomplice."

Mr. Rodger suggested that if the Court thought perjury had been committed, the man should be tried for perjury.

"He made the statement," replied the Court, "and he now denies it. We say that he did make it and he goes on trial."

After some further argument Dzung was placed in the dock and the next witness was called. This was one Wong Ching-sung, who stated that on December 8, the day before the murder, he was asked by one Miau Ching-hai, who was in company with the first two accused, to join in the assault on the murdered man. He said he declined to join.

The case was adjourned until next Tuesday.

Raise Curious Point In Collision Action At The Mixed Court

Whether or not Chinese navigation laws require sailing craft to carry a light at night was a point raised in a collision case which came up before Assessor Allman and Magistrate Loh yesterday.

The plaintiff is Chang Miao-sung, a junk owner, and defendants are the Jen Sin Transportation Company, whose steamer Yuentah collided with a junk of the plaintiff's in the river last May. Plaintiff claims $2,080 damages. Mr. Schoenfeld, appearing for the defense, maintained that the junk did carry a light, which was knocked off by the collision, but further contended that there was nothing in Chinese navigation laws making it obligatory for a junk to carry a light. Defendants, according to testimony, had offered to pay Tls. 300 damages.

The Court took the case under advisement.

National Board Greets New Y.W.C.A. Workers

More than 300 Chinese and foreign men and women attended the reception given by the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association of China at the old Carlton yesterday in honor of Miss Rosalee Venable, recently appointed general secretary of China; Miss Mary Dingman, industrial investigator; and Miss Mary Frances Cross, secretary of the foreign "Y" in Shanghai.

The guests were received by Mrs. H. C. Mei, president of the board, Miss Venable, Miss Dingman, Miss Cross, Mrs. E. H. Marsh, Mrs. C. H. Wang, Miss Shu Ching-ling, Mrs. E. P. Graham-Barrow, Miss Mildred Hand, Miss Nora Park Jarvis and Mrs. Charles S. Lobingier.

The affair was informal, there being no addresses. During tea, music was furnished by the Carlton orchestra. The members of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association some four years ago

The reception was the first function to be given for Miss Venable since her recent appointment as general secretary of China.

IN WAR WORK

Before coming to China as Secretary of the Shanghai Association some four years ago Miss Venable was general secretary of the Denver Association. She was also prominent in the United War Work Campaign of the Y. W. C. A. in Chicago.

Since her arrival in Shanghai she has visited practically every "Y" center in China with perhaps the exception of Chengtu, and recently returned to Shanghai from a trip to the Mukden and Peking offices.

For several years there has been a growing need in Shanghai for a Y. W. C. A. for foreign girls. The local association was so busy with its many activities for the Chinese girls of the city that there was no opportunity to open the clubs and classes of the association to the foreign girls.

FOR FOREIGN WORK

To meet this need the National Board has sent Miss Mary Frances Cross to Shanghai. In the past few weeks Miss Cross has been becoming acquainted with the situation here and supervising the opening of temporary club rooms at 19 Yuen Ming Yuen Road, which will be for foreign girls of all nationalities.

Miss Cross said yesterday that the rooms would in all probability be ready February 25.

No efforts will be made to organise clubs as yet for Miss Cross feels that the desire for club work must come from the girls of Shanghai. The rooms will be attractively arranged and business girls will have the privilege of resting there at tiffin time. Tea will be served daily.

A feature of special interest was the organisation of an employment bureau with a secretary in charge, who will assist girls and women in securing positions. She will investigate the "room and board" problem and be able to recommend desirable living quarters.

Thieves Endanger Tls. 1,500,000 Plant According To Police

Charges of larceny and arson, the latter containing the allegation that Tls. 1,500,000 in property were put to risk, were brought against three coolies at the Mixed Court yesterday.

Detective Sub-Inspector Quayle stated to the court that the men had gone into the Laou Kung Mow Cotton Mill, Yangtszepoo Road, Thursday at about 5 p.m., hiding until after dark, when they broke open a number of lockers and stole a quantity of workmen's clothing. The second accused was charged with carelessly lighting a cigarette, which started a fire at about 3 p.m., damage to the amount of Tls. 300 being done. The property at risk, witnesses said, was Tls. 1,500,000, and a disastrous fire would have thrown 7,000 men out of work.

The Court found the men guilty of larceny but dismissed the arson charge for lack of evidence. One of the accused, who had two previous convictions, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and the others were given four months each.

RUSSIANS FINED FOR BREACH OF TRAFFIC RULES

B. Khrenoff Brought To Court On Two Charges

Two flagrant breaches of traffic regulations, witnessed by two high officials in the police, brought fines for Mr. B. Khrenoff, Russian, at the Mixed Court yesterday.

The first charge against the defendant, that of driving at excessive speed and failing to slow down at crossings on Bubbling Well Road on January 3, was supported by Mr. M. O. Springfield, Assistant Commissioner of Police in charge of Traffic. Mr. Springfield stated that his own car was proceeding at about 27 miles an hour when the defendant passed at a rate of speed which he calculated at 52 miles an hour. He considered 25 to 30 miles an hour a reasonable rate of speed for that particular stretch of road, with slowing down at the crossings. The accused did not even slow down at Hardoon Road, where there is a sign warning motorists.

Mr. Khrenoff told Assessor Ivanoff and Magistrate Tsang that he seldom drove over 40 miles an hour but admitted that he probably was exceeding the speed limit on this occasion. He always went a little slower at crossings, he said. He was fined $15 on this charge.

Chief Inspector Wheeler of the Mixed Court appeared as witness in the second charge. He stated that he was driving along Nanking Road near Lloyd Road on January 11 when the defendant, with a friend and a Chinese chauffeur in the car, passed him at 30 miles an hour. Driving up behind the accused, he asked him if he did not know that it was against the regulation to pass another car going in the same direction on Nanking Road. The accused only laughed, waved his hand and kept on going. Witness then mentioned that he was a police officer, whereupon accused laughed again and remarked that he was "driving a motor car, not a ricsha." Following this he slowed down to about 6 miles an hour and drove at that rate all the way to Szechuen Road, holding up the traffic behind him.

The fine in this case was $25.

Another Russian, J. B. Martinitch, was fined $5 for failing to obey traffic signals at the corner of Nanking Road and The Bund.

No Steps At Present For Restoration Of Mixed Court, Report

The committee appointed by the Consular Body to consider the proposal to return the Mixed Court to the Chinese has decided that any steps taken at present would be premature, according to a statement attributed to the acting Japanese Consul-General by the Chinese press.

The action of the committee, according to the reported statement of the Japanese official, was taken after serious and careful attention had been given the matter, in deference to the request of the Chinese authorities. The acting Japanese Consul-General, however, states the report, assured his interviewer that the Mixed Court would ultimately be restored to the Chinese government.

Rangers vs. St. Francis Xavier's. Referee: Mr. W. Shepard-Graham.

BY "WHISTLE"

The chief interest in today's football will center in the game between the Club and the Recs. Both have been able to put good teams out fairly consistently, and they are admittedly the strongest in the League. At present the Recs own one more point than the Club but have played one more game, hence the match today will settle the League standings.

It is to be hoped that Wade is sufficiently recovered to be able to turn out for the Recs, who have a sounder defence than the Club, now that the latter have lost Seredkin. On the other hand the Club forwards are good, unless they strike a real off-day. Anyway, it is to be hoped that the game will be free from the unpleasant incidents which occurred last time they met.

The fans will be asked to pay a dollar to see the game in order to enable the Football Association to raise funds for the Hongkong trip. Boy Scouts will collect the money.

The following line-ups are announced for today's games:

CAMPOS DEFEATS BUSH, 300-153, IN BILLIARD GAME

J. P. da Campos, the Club Lusitano crack, ran 300 points last night while E. D. Bush, the Thirty Club topnotcher, was recording 153, thus deciding an argument which has had billiard fans worried for some time.

A big crowd jammed into the Lusitano Club billiard hall to see the pair clash and they were rewarded by a beautiful 53 break by the winner and a couple of 40-odd runs by Bush.

Kline's Whites again failed to turn up last night at the Rowing Club for their game with the Blues, and forfeited for the fourth time this season. The standing shows the Blues with a strong hold on first place, two full games ahead of the American School five and the Bearcats.

The Blues appear to have a great chance to repeat their triumph of last year, going into the second half of the season two games ahead of their nearest rivals. The Blues have been on a winning spree since their defeat by the Bearcats in December, and have annexed their seventh consecutive game.

The Bearcats have slumped in a disappointing manner this week, dropping games to Neprud's gang and the team from the S.A.S. Irle and Gray have been playing great basketball, but Roxburgh has not been able to show his old form, and is the weak point in the team's

MR. KLIENE IS SPEAKER BEFORE LITERARY DEPT.

The fascinating Chinese legend, "The Chess Players," was told in a very entertaining manner by Mr. Charles Kliene at the meeting of the Literary Department of the American Woman's Club which met at the Royal Asiatic Society hall yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Kliene told the story of the young Chinese boy walking home from school one day when he met a fortune teller who stopped him and told him that he would die at the age of nineteen.

The boy was greatly upset and hastened to tell his widowed mother the sad news. Accompanied by his mother he went to the temple to ask the priest if the news was true.

The priest confirmed the prediction of the fortune teller and said that if the boy would journey to the Southern Mountain, climb to the top and offer wine and venison to the gods he might be given a longer lease on life.

The boy started at once on his long journey. When he reached the very top of the highest peak, he saw two men playing chess. One of the men radiated health and happiness while the other was as pale as death.

The boy found that the one was the God of Life and the other the God of Death. The two were so absorbed in their game that they didn't see the boy place his offering of food beside them.

Finally the players decided that the game was a draw and they then discovered the food. Being weary they ate the meat and drank the wine and wondered who had given them the food.

The boy came forward and asked the gods to extend the years of his life. Death looked in the book of fate and found that the boy was down for nineteen years.

He protested against increasing the number but Life finally overcame his objections after pointing out that they had eaten the offering of the boy, that he had a splendid reputation and was the only support of his aged mother. With one stroke of the pen, Life changed the nineteen to ninety nine and the boy journeyed homeward to tell his mother the good news.

Mrs. H. A. Wilbur, chairman of the Literary Department will sail today for Europe and Mrs. Stockton will act as chairman in her stead.

Di Villa Charge Comes Up Monday

The criminal charge of misappropriation brought by Mr. S. Saguira, representing the International Gold and Silver Currency Exchange, against the Viscount E. M. di Villa, former co-manager of the Far Eastern Bank, is to come up for hearing in the Mixed Court next Monday.

The Viscount di Villa is accused of conspiring with Nien Sungtung in falsely representing that the cost for registration of the Exchange at the Italian Consulate was $100,000, instead of $50,000, and with misappropriating $25,000 to his own use. The case will come before the Japanese Assessor.

Chinese Smuggler Arrested In Seattle

Seattle operatives of the Department of Justice expressed the belief that they have in custody one of the ringleaders of a notorious gang of smugglers following the arrest of Ip Oon-kai, a Chinese passenger arrested as he was embarking from the President Jackson there on January 6, according to telegraphic advices received yesterday.

Ip was arrested when a large quantity of opium and jade which he was attempting to smuggle into the country was discovered. Search of the ship revealed fourteen boxes of opium and thirty jars of samshu in addition to the contraband found on Ip.

attack. Lewis is out of the game temporarily with a bad arm, and the other players, Hirsh, Pollock, and Elliott, are not in the best of trim. Irle's team will have a couple of easy games next week before again tackling the Blues, whom they play on the Rowing Club floor, the scene of the last great battle.

With anything like good playing and luck, the Blues should end up at the top of the league, unless the Bearcats get going again.

The American School has lost two games to the leaders, but have come back sensationally in grand form, and are figured to give the Blues a fight.

The Whites will probably drop out of the league, and their players assigned to the other Rowing Club fives, unless a new spirit and willingness to turn out is shown. Kline has been out to all the games, but his team doesn't seem to have the pep to appear and one player can't stand against a league composed of fast net stars.

Dual Citizenship Is Opposed By Chinese Chamber

The Shanghai General Chamber of Commerce has addressed a communication to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Peking suggesting that Chinese who are naturalised as Portuguese should be prevented from enjoying the privileges of Chinese citizens, and that they should make known their acquired nationality when they enter into any business agreement with Chinese citizens.

The Chamber states that these conditions have been provided for in the Sino-Portuguese treaty entered into about twenty years ago, but they have never been strictly enforced by the Portuguese consular authorities.

Cases often occur where these Portuguese-naturalised Chinese avail themselves of the protection of Portuguese law when trouble arises in their business, while in ordinary times they enjoy the full privilege of Chinese citizens, to the serious detriment of real Chinese merchants.

The Crisis In Europe

WELL-WISHERS of Europe, which means the whole civilised world, today stand appalled at the situation that has arisen there. Another great war-conflagration apparently is about to sweep over that stricken continent. The Russians, Turks and Greeks already are mobilised; the Hungarians, Rumanians, Bulgarians and Jugo-Slavs are mobilising. The French have occupied the Ruhr basin. The Russians have been the first, after the Germans, to protest this act, and they have protested with a violence born of the bitter hatred they hold against the French. The Germans are defiant. All the hatreds persist and are nourished. The children growing up in the schools and listening to their parents at the fireside are being taught the age-old hates and drilled towards vengeances long proved profitless.

And apparently nothing can be done about it. That is the most soul-destroying of the thoughts that come. The thing is so hopeless of cure. The two great nations which might do something have tried, and now apparently feel constrained to stand aloof. Britain stands aloof from the impending conflict, America more so.

Politically and economically the Russians and Germans are being forced into one another's arms. They cherish their common hatreds of France. Their money is more or less on a parity, making trade between them easy, manufactured goods against raw materials. They represent 70 odd per-cent of the population of Europe.

If the immediate result of the present occupation of the Ruhr district turns out to be an offensive and defensive alliance between Russia and Germany, we shall see a Soviet Germany. The German people under great pressure, economic on one side and political on the other, thus far have resisted the great lure which the Bolshevist doctrines have for poor people. And the Germans today are poor, not poorer than some of the others, of course, but poor as the word goes in contrast with their former state of affluence. A rather plain path of escape from most or all of the terms of the Versailles Treaty has presented itself to them ever since that treaty was signed, i.e., to go Bolshevist. At one time, shortly after the full terms of the treaty became known, there was a strong movement in that direction, but the Germans themselves rejected Bolshevism. They didn't want it—then. Upon their decision now depends the fate of Europe.

We hate to hand ourselves compliments even tho' we are a south-paw, but Miss Ima Hoot-Nanny, after giving yesterday's pagoda of piffle a hasty look-see remarked, "Speaking of Dr. Coue, every day in every way you're getting worser and worser."

Ima also elucidates that she sees where the Powers want the Customs surtax to pay for bandit rampages and she thinks the women should receive some recognition also.

Whichever way you look at it it's poor Customs.

Shakespeare was putting the finishing touches on Scene 2, Act 1 of The Tempest.

"The fringed curtains of thine eyes advance," he wrote—and then, putting his trusty quill in his mouth, thot it over.

"Nope, that won't do," he remarked to his muse, "the flapping fraternity might not be able to perceive exactly what I meant.

He scribbled again—"Wink, you cunning little devilette."

One night, a thousand or so years ago, a young Chinese, Fo Chu-I, who was to become one of the great poets of the T'ang period, the Golden Age of Chinese poetry, was dreaming while on duty in the palace, about the Hsien-yu Temple, where he spent his holidays. And presently he took his brush in hand, and wrote:

NIGHT DUTY AT THE PALACE

I sat at the window working,
Copying the emperor's laws.
Bamboos slept in the stillness;
Even my pen would pause.
The moon rose up from the garden
And a wind rose up from the pines;
Sudden it seemed an evening
In the hills when a new moon shines.
I dozed as I did night duty,
And I dreamed of the fair Southwest:
I was back at Hsien-yu Temple,
The temple that I love best
And when I woke in the palace,
The drip of the water clock
I thought was a mountain streamlet
Going drip-drip-drip on a rock.
—Po Chu-I

We have aspirations to attend the masque bal at the French Club tonight, and with good luck we shall be there. At the moment of writing we have not yet decided on our costume. We had thot of going as Valentino but we would be compelled to use too much disguise. Then we thought about going as a needle in a haystack to fool the Amalagamated Union of Harrier Shroffs; as a ham affinity for some of the w.k. eggs who will unquestionably be there—but passed them all by.

Anyway, we shall be there if the flivver doesn't flunk and as Ma Jongg has been heard to remark on more than one occasion the only thing a flivver can't do is get its tail over the lines.

China In 1922

CHAO HSIEN

This district being a small one and off from the great thoroughfares of China does not feel the throbs of the outside world as larger places do. And although only 60 miles from Wuhu where the trend towards modern improvement is felt and seen, yet this place for the most part pursues the even tenor of her way as she did years ago, observes the old customs that are now obsolete in other places in the Republic and refuses to allow changes to be made by those who would undertake them. In a recent conversation with the new police chief here, this unwillingness to allow changes to take place was charged up to the attitude of the older gentry who control the reins of government here. And the only hope for the place is the early demise of these factors.

However there has been a certain amount of change which is beyond the control of any individual or individuals. Commercially there have been evident signs of prosperity. The number of shops torn down and rebuilt and the difficulty with which it is possible to purchase or lease property in the business district shows the pulse of the business interests. In the heart of the rice district most of the business is in rice. One class lives entirely by letting out their land or money for the production or rice, and the other lives by buying and selling it. There has recently grown up a big business with the outside world of exporting rice, and to this end several new rice mills have been built. There has been a steady advance in the price of rice and correspondingly in labor and all other products. The general air of prosperity is evidenced by the numbers of new substantial dwellings and old ones which have been torn down and rebuilt in better style. There is talk of an electric light plant to be installed soon.

Politics only have an indirect effect upon the place such as the removal of one class of officials when a change is made higher up and there is the need of finding places for the class who follow in their train. Sometimes this is a benefit and at other times a distinct injury. We could well hope for change now. There has been no change during the year. But the growth sale and use of Opium during the last twelve months has been something we have never seen here before, which speaks a low standard morally for the place.

CHANGE OF ATTITUDE

This place was originally quite anti-foreign, so much so that the first foreign interests to enter the place met with considerable opposition and persecution. This condition is gradually bettering and perhaps at no time have there been more signs of cordiality than there have been the last year. The introduction of foreign medicine into the place in 1914 was not only not welcomed with any great signs but was opposed, but with the opening of a new and modern Hospital the last year in addition to the Dispensary which was already in operation there has been quite marked interest in this work in contrast to the attitude of a few years ago.

Although there have been no special features of interest which would attract our attention we feel that there is still a tendency which was not present a few years ago toward improvement and we have hopes that before many years this tendency which is now so negligible a factor will result in many changes which are needed for the general sanitary and hygienic welfare of the public.

NORTH KIANGSU

Good crops, fewer robbers and the opening of the Eastern Extension of the Lung Hai R. R. were the leading events of the latter half of the year. Famine conditions prevailed in a few sections, during the first half of the year, and the Shanghai and Nanking relief committees distributed grain and money.

The city of Suchowfu is located at the junction of the Lung Hai and Tientsin Pukow R. R. It is the center of the pan-handle country of North Kiangsu, being surrounded by Anhwei, Honan and Shantung.

Very heavy shipments have been made of peanuts, hides, grain, and beans and bean oil. The two large egg factories here have enlarged their business during recent years. There has been a large influx of foreign made goods. Many new and attractive stores have been opened selling wares never before offered for sale here.

The electric light plant has installed new up to date generators and boilers giving the city a good service and more than doubling their former capacity.

Work has been suspended on the hanger for airplanes, but the landing field has been completed. This is the intermediate landing station between Tsinanfu and Nanking on the proposed Peking to Shanghai air line.

RAIL PROGRESS

The year has seen the Lung Hai R. R. under the rapid yet thorough work of the Dutch engineers completed to the Grand Canal about 45 miles East of this city. A bridge has been built across the canal and doubtless construction will proceed to the Yellow Sea in due time. For the time being however construction is suspended for lack of funds. The road has put on a daily service to the canal and it is well patronised. Freight traffic is also beginning. Passenger service on the main line running West has also been improved. An excellent dining-car service is now provided and trains use the union station.

Since the disarmament of the Anhwei troops, a month ago, law and order has been much improved in the city. Since these free lances have been banished from the trains, travel has become much pleasanter and freer from annoyance.

The city is growing in all directions. New buildings are going up in great numbers both within and without the city walls. A large trade is being done in lumber, both foreign and native. Unfortunately the city suffers from an inadequate and antiquated water supply. At one time we had hoped that this would be remedied and the foreign expert who made the survey reported no physical difficulties in installing an up-to-date system but the project would not be financed.

Nineteen hundred and twenty-two has been a good year for the city schools. The men's Normal school has an enrollment of over 200 and the women's Normal is steadily growing. The Tenth High School is crowded to capacity. No progress however has been made with the country Government schools and thousands of villages in this section are still without primary schools, though the farmers are heavily taxed for school funds.

The Presbyterian Mission here reports gratifying progress. They now have five chapels and churches in the city and are trying to keep pace with this rapidly expanding city. Their two high schools and two hospitals are overcrowded. They have just purchased a tract of 54 mow of land for a new compound and two new residences are now in course of construction.

A good-roads commission from Nanking arrived some months ago and are now busy making surveys for forty miles around the city in all directions with a view to putting in motor roads. Even now the cart roads are navigable, the mission here owning a motor car and using it continually on all the roads.

Many think that this will soon become an open port city. A commission from Nanking has recently arrived at the invitation of the local chamber of commerce and is now busy making surveys for roads bridges, etc., for their report to the Board of Communications at Peking. Those in a position to know seem to think that a favorable result is assured.

Business Improvement Shown During The Week

BY DAVID ARAKIE
(Financial Editor)

Business during the week has shown a tendency to healthy improvement. There is a better demand from consuming countries abroad for China products, and but for the difficult of securing space for North Continental ports for immediate shipment the trade in certain lines would have been on a much larger scale.

With the diminishing quantity of rice pouring into Shanghai from Japan buyers here have been compelled to place larger orders with producing markets, and some further contracts were closed this week with Rangoon and Saigon houses. The price of rice in Japan is going up, thus precluding the export of this product to the Shanghai market.

Chinese oils and seeds are on the upward grade, European buyers showing a desire to accept local ruling quotations.

There was brisk bidding at the piecegoods auctions this week, and it is anticipated that after the Chinese New Year business will take a turn for the better. The prospects are certainly good.

More and more American flour is being bought by Shanghai and in the period under review transactions involving 7,000 tons were put through with Pacific Coast mills, while an equal quantity arrived during the week.

Three flour mills started work again this week as the supplies of American wheat that they had contracted long before they decided to suspend operations were delivered here. They have thus been compelled to restart work temporarily for a few days to mill same into flour. The prospects of the Shanghai flour mills starting work again this season are extremely remote. There might be spasmodic attempts made now and again by one or two mills to mill flour, but their activities cannot extend for a long period.

There was another appreciation this week in the price of manufactured cotton yarn, the result of a higher market for Chinese raw cotton. Yarn went up seven points while cotton registered an increase of two points. The buying is expected to be buoyant after the Chinese New Year.

FLOUR IMPORTS

This week a larger volume of business was done in imported flour. Orders have gone to the Pacific Coast ports for the supply of 5,000 tons of American flour, the buyers being principally Chinese merchants. There arrived during the week some five thousand tons of American flour. The fresh business was on the basis of G.$1.45 per sack, equivalent, at today's exchange, to Tls. 2.08 to Tls. 2.10 per sack. The price of flour on the local Flour Exchange is Tls. 2.18 per sack, and the Shanghai market is steady.

In American wheat as well the week witnessed an additional interest and although a small trade of a thousand tons transpired it is expected that fresh orders will be placed by the local millers. The price of wheat in the States has gone up to G.$46.50 and G.$47.50 per ton, from G.$45.00 per ton, and at the present rate it would amount to Tls. 4.40 and Tls 4.50 per picul.

The fresh buying was done by the Hufong Flour mill, and it is of interest to record here that three or four flour mills are at present working but this, it is feared, will be spasmodically. These particular manufacturies have received supplies of wheat from the United States and are milling them, and as soon as they are exhausted they will stop work.

Some 7,000 tons of Pacific Coast wheat were consigned to Shanghai this week, and this quantity will keep the mills going for some four days.

Arrivals of Chinese wheat are very poor, and although they have increased in the meantime, compared with previous weeks they are utterly inadequate for the needs of the millers. The week's arrivals averaged about a thousand to two thousand bags. Speaking truly, there is no real market for Chinese wheat, and the rate is nominal at Tls. 4.30 per picul.

There is nothing doing in Manchurian wheat as prices are too high.

There will be a material increase in the demand after the Chinese New Year. Flour buying in Pacific Northwestern markets has failed to respond to the strength in wheat. Some business is being done by these mills in hand wheat flours with the North Atlantic seaboard, and in spite of the large number of intercoastal steamship lines the American mills have had difficulty in obtaining space on account of the heavy offerings of lumber and general cargo.

It is interesting to read in the American flour organs that the small amount of business now being done with Shanghai is at very close figures, while at the same time we are told that exports of American flour to the United Kingdom are going either on consignment or at sacrifice prices.

Exports of American flour from Seattle during November to Shanghai, Hongkong and Tientsin totaled 6,259 barrels, while Japan took 475 barrels, the Philippine Islands 7,644 barrels and the United Kingdom 127 barrels.

RICE DWINDLING

The supplies of Saigon, Rangoon and Bangkok rice from Japan to Shanghai have been dwindling down to the lowest possible figure. This week the incoming boats from Japan only consigned about 1,000 to 2,000 bags of rice, and these were bought immediately by Chinese merchants from Chekiang province. Besides these, there arrived in Shanghai from Honan and Kiangse some 5,000 bags.

In view of the falling off in the imports of rice from Japan the local merchants have been bestirring themselves and placing orders with the producing markets. Some 1,500 tons of Saigon rice was contracted for delivery in March and April, also a thousand tons of Rangoon Medium Medong rice at Tls. 4.70 per picul for April delivery. There was no indent business in Bangkok rice.

Stocks of rice in Shanghai at the present moment amount to about 20,000 bags of Saigon, Siam and Rangoon rice and 30,000 bags of Chinese rice. Arrivals of Honan rice are decreasing steadily.

Foreign rice in stock in Kobe on January 10 was estimated to amount to 611,759 koku, having decreased by 63,315 koku in the past month. Japanese prices have been going up and during the past month. Japanese prices have been going up and during the past fortnight, registered such an advance that they are now above the parity of the producing markets.

BETTER PRODUCE MART

There is a much better feeling in the produce market. Prices of all oil and seeds show a distinct improvement. The European market is much better, and the improvement here is really the reflex of the better demand from abroad. It has been difficult to cover requirements at previous week's quotations, and buyers have shown a willingness to pay more to secure their needs. This is especially so in the case of the United Kingdom and the Continent, which have been insisting on prompt shipment, and expressing a willingness to pay five to ten shillings premium for a cargo afloat. 7.30 per picul equivalent to £23 per ton cif Hamburg and Rotterdam. This lot was bought by an exporting firm, and it has kept many puzzling how they could have afforded to pay this rate when the price prevailing on the London Produce Exchange is only £21.10 per ton.

There is nothing doing in sesamum seed cakes. The local mills are not crushing sesamum seeds as they have no demand for this kind of oil in China; the Chinese prefering to use the cheapest quality. Sesamum seed oil is at present the most expensive edible oil on the local market.

FAIR PEANUT TRADE

With the United States a fair business was done this week in peanuts shelled for edible purposes. It is estimated that some 10,000 tons was done during the past fortnight for shipment to the Pacific Coast and New York. All these shipments will be going forward from Tsingtau, as buyers have found it more profitable to buy there than in Shanghai. Buying in Tsingtau ensures a saving in freight and all charges, which amounts to about 80 silver yen. Tsinanfu is the center of the peanut producing district.

Stocks of peanuts have been accumulating in Shanghai and stand at about 600 tons. The quotation here is Tls. 6.70 per picul. The United Kingdom has not been able to buy this product as present prices are considered too high. The export from Tsingtau at present is limited to the United States. The European rate is £19.10 per ton, and that prevailing on the Tsingtau market £21.10 per ton. Consequently nothing can be done.

Local crushing mills are buying only small quantities of peanuts, and the only business of the week for local mill consumption was a parcel of 300 tons. The price of peanut oil is advancing in sympathy with a higher peanut market. The oil mills are demanding Tls. 14.50 for February-March delivery. This is too high for the export market and also for local consumption. The mills are firm in their ideas, and not willing to work at lower figures.

In rapeseeds the stocks are almost exhausted, and nothing is transpiring in this section. The price is advancing and is quoted nominally at Tls. 6.50 per picul There is nothing doing in rapeseed oil.

COTTONSEED FIRM

The cottonseed market is firm at Tls. 2.30 per picul. Both the United Kingdom and the United States are out of the market. We have no surplus for export of cottonseeds, all of which are crushed in the country. In cottonseed oil some business resulted this week for local consumption.

The market in bean cakes is firm. Points in the interior have been making purchases in the Shanghai market at Tls. 1.40 per piece. It is expected that prices will go higher, as the rate for beans is advancing in Manchuria. The Dairen market for soya beans is firm as the Japanese market is going up. Japanese exporters in Dairen have been buying largely recently.

Stocks in general of all seasonal Chinese products are running low. Prices obtaining on the Shanghai market at present for seeds and oils are higher than prevail on the Indian market. Supplies of seeds particularly are meagre, and it is certainly not expected that quotations will show any decline.

PIECE GOODS QUIET

Piece-goods trade is gradually quieting down prior to settlement of dealers' accounts, but there is still a fair demand for immediate shipment to outports and prices are firm. Country folk are very concerned owing to continued drought and this is now interfering with movement of cargo in the interior. Speculators would, however, readily take fair quantities at last prices for payment after Chinese New Year, but they find few willing to sell on this basis.

At the auctions this week quantities were substantially increased; with payment extended to six, instead of the usual three, weeks. Bidding was very brisk throughout and would have been still healthier but for the fact that Hankow merchants held aloof. Prices were firmer and some useful advances established for greys and whites, bidding for which was mainly to feed immediate trade demand. The speculators were busier with blacks and fancies and seemed quite ready to take the larger offerings.

In the Manchester market cotton and cloth continue firm, but makers in many instances are open to temptation provided offers are reasonably near quotations. We gather some substantial inquiries have been wired this past week and this seems to have created the impression in Manchester that China is an eager buyer. This is unlikely, as local values are still much below replacing costs, in spite of the recent improvement. Prospects for the early spring trade must be considered good.

YARN MARKET FIRM

The yarn market has been very firm, going up some seven taels per bale. This was due to the high price of the raw material.

The buyers were principally merchants from Fukien, Canton, Kiangse, Newchwang, Wuhu and Hankow, although Szechuen also bought in small quantities. The total business of the week compriced about 7,000 bales.

The interior is bare of stocks, and many anticipate a big business after the Chinese New Year. Quotations are: 16s, Tls. 144 to Tls. 156; 20s, Tls. 150 to Tls. 163, and 14s about Tls. 545 per bale. The buying during the week was confined to 16s, 20s and 10s.

Business in cotton was restricted specially to the Shensi grade, the local mills buying some 6,000 bales. Arrivals from Tungchow were practically nil, while on account of the strike of workers in the Hankow Packing Company no Shensi cotton arrived this week. All the Shensi cotton sold was from stocks on hand in Shanghai. Stocks of Shensi cotton at present on the local market average about 1,000 to 2,000 bales. Arrivals of Shanghai cotton do not amount to more than 200 bales per day.

The American cotton market has been very firm, marking an increase of some 40 points. The Bombay bazaar has been steady.

Shensi cotton is quoted at Tls. 40.50 per picul, Shanghai cotton at Tls. 38 per picul and Tungchow at Tls. 41 per picul.

CASTORIA
for Infants and Children.
The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying power, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them wilfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. guarantees genuine Castoria.

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"Your preparation known as Castoria I have used for years in children's complaints and I have found nothing better."
JOHN J. LEPPA, M. D.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

"I have prescribed your Castoria in many cases and have always found it an efficient and speedy remedy."
A. F. PEELER M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"For several years I recommended your 'Castoria' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."
EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., New York City.

"I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild laxative effect and freedom from harm."
EDWARD PARRISH, M. D.,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Your Castoria is a meritorious household remedy. It is purely vegetable and acts as a mild cathartic. Above all, it does no harm, which is more than can be said of the great majority of children's remedies."
VICTOR H. COFFMAN, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments."
J. A. PARKER, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

January 19, 1923

Spot bar silver was up 7-16d and forward 1-2d in London yesterday. The New York price was unchanged and the London New York cross rate advanced to 465½. Our official Sterling rate here today was raised to 3-1, the Gold Dollar rate to 71¾, the Yen rate dropped to 68¼ and the other rates changed accordingly.

In the afternoon however the Sterling rate was dropped to 3s. 0½d. and the other rates lowered to yesterday's level. Our market here at the opening was firm, some business in Sterling being done as high as 3s. 1⅛d. for January, 3s. 1⅛d. February and 3s. 1¼d. March.

However, there were strong buyers at these rates and the market eased off during the course of the day, particularly for forward delivery. At the close there were sellers of Sterling at 3s. 1⅛d. January, 3s. 1⅛d. February and 3s. 0⅞d. for March.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at 72½ January, 72¼ February and 72 for forward delivery. There were sellers of Yen at 67¾ for January and buyers at 67¼. There were sellers for March at 67¾ and buyers at 67½. The market closed steady.

Banks were quoting 3s. 2¼d. and 74¼ for Sterling and Gold Dollar bills for delivery prior to China New Year and 3s. 1⅞d. and 74 for subsequent deliveries. There were buyers of Franc bills at 1120.

India and China both bought silver in London yesterday, the market closing steady.

New York report their market as easy with sellers at the official rate.
